About the Global Gender Matters Network

In a rapidly changing global world, gender matters cross borders and render new meanings. The Global Gender Matters Network examines the transnational ways in which gender is configured socio-culturally, economically, and politically in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, and Latin America.

The Network encourages scholars with a particular interest in global gender matters to meet and discuss how sexualized and racialized roles, relationships, powers, and conflicts inform gender ideas and practices in particular non-Western contexts.

In the fall of 2010, the Global Gender Matters Network organizes an informal seminar series entitled News from “The Field”: Work in Progress which offers thought-provoking presentations, most of which will be organized as back-to-back talks.

Join the seminars and contribute to a lively debate!

Everybody is very welcome!
