

Gender Studies Research Seminars

When: May 2 and 3
15.00-17.00

Where: Room 221,
Department of Gender Studies

The research seminar is a student-led space for exchange and learning. Join us and listen to gender students present their research.

This event is open for all.

Friday may 3

The Academic Support Centre -
Thesis Writing and Coping strategies

Faith James - What constitutes political resistance? A case study in disclosure practices of children of same-sex parents

Edwin Fondén - Cis-normativity within the Swedish Welfare State

Becca Alfaro -The Evolvment of Feminist Symbols in the Chicana Feminist Movement

Thursday may 2

Andrea Tock - Latin American Decolonial feminists theorizing the state

Noah Saarela and Oskar Larsson - Heart to heart revisited

Vilma Nyberg - A discourse analysis of the debate on the Swedish Gender Equality Agency

My Borglund - Colonialism in denial: Swedish colonial history in school textbooks

LUND
UNIVERSITY