

GLOBAL GENDER MATTERS NETWORK

Organizes a workshop on:

CIVIL SOCIETY, POLITICS, AND OPPOSITION

09:45-10:00

Welcome by the Organizers Professor Diana Mulinari and Professor Helle Rydström
Dept. of Gender Studies, Lund University

10:00-10:30 Lory Dance

Visiting Professor, Center for Middle Eastern Studies, Lund University, and Senior Researcher, University of Nebraska, USA:

“I See (Socially) Dead People”: Our Sixth Sense that Haunts “Black” Urban Teens in Sweden and the U.S

10:30-10:45 Comments by Giulia Garofalo Geymonat

Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, Dept. of Gender Studies, Lund University

11:00-11:30 Mona Lilja

Associate Professor, School of Global Studies, Gothenburg University:

Civil Society and Every Day Resistance in Cambodia: Negotiating Gender-based Violence

11:30-11:45 Comments by Paul Horton

Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, Dept. of Gender Studies, Lund University

12:00-13:00 Lunch

13:00-13:30 Oscar Salemink

Professor, Dept. of Anthropology, University of Copenhagen, Denmark:

An Emancipatory Movement or the “Left Hand of Empire”? Civil Society in Thailand and Vietnam

13:30-13:45 Comments by Giulia Garofalo Geymonat

Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, Dept. of Gender Studies, Lund University

14:00-14:30 Aneeta Rajendran

Erasmus Mundus Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, Dept. of Gender Studies, Lund University, and Lecturer, Dept. of English, Gargi College, University of Delhi, India:

Locating the Indian Lesbian: Queer Politics and Civil Society

14:30-14:45 Comments by Paul Horton

Post-Doctoral Research Fellow, Dept. of Gender Studies, Lund University

15:00-15:45 Coffee, Tea, and Final Discussion

WHEN? May 21, 2013; 10:00-16:00

WHERE? Portvaktstugan, Ground Floor, Building M1
Department of Gender Studies, Allhelgona kyrkogata 14M, Lund.

LUND
UNIVERSITY