

SPRING 2011

The Global Gender Matters Network

Hosted by the Department of Gender Studies
Faculty of Social Sciences
Lund University

Organizes two Informal Workshops on:

“Being There”: Gender, Fieldwork, and the Politics of Emotions

About the Global Gender Matters Network

In a rapidly changing global world, gender matters cross borders and render new meanings. The Global Gender Matters Network examines the transnational ways in which gender is configured socio-culturally, economically, and politically in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean, and Latin America.

The Network encourages scholars with a particular interest in global gender matters to meet and discuss how sexualized and racialized roles, relationships, powers, and conflicts inform gender ideas and practices in particular non-Western contexts.

In the spring of 2011, the Global Gender Matters Network organizes two informal workshops on *“Being There”:
Gender, Fieldwork, and the Politics of Emotions* which include thought-provoking presentations.

Join the workshops and contribute to a lively debate!

Everybody is very welcome!
