Department of Gender Studies is celebrating its 40th anniversary.
In 1978, Forum for Women Researchers and Women’s research studies was established at Lund University by a network of researchers and doctoral students. Throughout 2018, we are celebrating 40 years of feminist research and education with a range of open events reflecting the postdisciplinarity of important feminist conversations.

February 14th, 13–15
Autoethnography as Method
• Shahram Khosravi, Stockholm University

March 8, 12-13
International Women’s Day Event:
The Future of Feminist Pedagogies

March 28th, 13–15
Crip & Queer Seminar Series: Erfarenheter av personlig assistans och omfattande funktionsnedsättningar i Sverige 1994-2017 – preliminära resultat
• Matilda Svensson Chowdhury, Stiftelsen JAG

April 25th, 13–15
Crip & Queer Seminar Series: Mapping the Transition to “Informed Consent” Models for Medical Interventions on Persons with Intersex Conditions (or other Differences in Sex Development)
• Jameson Garland, Uppsala University

April 25th, 9–16
Abortion in Contentious Europe – a symposium on reproductive rights in times of European (dis)integration • Keynote: Agnieszka Graff, University of Warsaw

May 24, 10-12
Trans* – A Quick Guide to Gender Variability • Jack Halberstam, Honorary Doctor at the Faculty of Social Sciences, Lund University

May 25th, 13–15
Transnational Justice and Gendered Vulnerability – Feminist Politics and (Im)possible Solidarities • Nikita Dhawan, University of Innsbruck

October 6–7th, 9–16
Transforming our lives. Transforming the world. The Third International Marxist-Feminist Conference

November 16th
Gender Studies Day