

GENDER STUDIES

Department of Gender Studies is celebrating its 40th anniversary.

In 1978, Forum for Women Researchers and Women's research studies was established at Lund University by a network of researchers and doctoral students. Throughout 2018, we are celebrating 40 years of feminist research and education with a range of open events reflecting the postdisciplinarity of important feminist conversations.

February 14, 13–15

Autoethnography as Method

• Shahram Khosravi, Stockholm University

March 8, 12-13

International Women's Day Event:

The Future of Feminist Pedagogies

March 28, 13–15

Crip & Queer Seminar Series:

Erfarenheter av personlig assistans och omfattande funktionsnedsättningar i Sverige 1994-2017 – preliminära resultat

• Matilda Svensson Chowdhury, Stiftelsen JAG

April 25, 13–15

Crip & Queer Seminar Series: Mapping the Transition to "Informed Consent" Models for Medical Interventions on Persons with Intersex Conditions (or other Differences in Sex Development) • Jameson Garland, Uppsala University

April 25, 9–16

Abortion in Contentious Europe

– a Symposium on Reproductive Rights in Times of European (Dis)integration • Keynote: Agnieszka Graff, University of Warsaw

May 24, 10-12

Trans* – A Quick Guide to Gender Variability

• Jack Halberstam, Honorary Doctor at the Faculty of Social Sciences, Lund University

May 25, 13–15

Transnational Justice and Gendered Vulnerability

– Feminist Politics and (Im)possible Solidarities

• Nikita Dhawan, University of Innsbruck

October 6–7, 9–16

Transforming our lives. Transforming the world.

The Third International Marxist-Feminist Conference

November 16

Gender Studies Day

LUND UNIVERSITY